Key Performance Insights

What Worked Well:

- 1. Justin Herbert Parlay Excellent value bet that hit perfectly
- 2. Chargers Spread Good read on the underdog covering
- 3. Kelly Criterion Sizing Proper bankroll management limited losses

X What Didn't Work:

- 1. Travis Kelce Props Overestimated his involvement (only 2 catches vs 5+ needed)
- 2. Under 47.5 Missed by just 0.5 points (very close)

@ Analysis:

- Your biggest winner was the Herbert parlay (+$529), showing good quarterback evaluation
- The Kelce prop was the biggest loss (-$128) due to limited targets (only 4 attempts)
- Overall strategy was sound with 120% ROI despite 50% win rate
- High-value bets (+475 odds) paid off when they hit

Recommendations for Future Betting:

- 1. Continue using Kelly Criterion for bet sizing
- 2. Consider player target share when betting receiving props
- 3. Your quarterback analysis was excellent Herbert delivered 318 yards, 3 TDs
- 4. The spread bet showed good game flow prediction

Final Grade: A- - Excellent ROI despite mixed results. Strong bankroll management and one huge winner offset the losses.
