Monday Night Football Betting Recap: A Winning Night on Jaguars Upset

A winning night was secured thanks to a successful wager on the Jacksonville Jaguars to win outright, leading to a positive return on investment (ROI). The Jaguars pulled off a 31-28 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs on Monday, October 6, 2025, a result that turned several key bets into winners. However, a number of player prop bets and the parlay selections did not come to fruition.

Below is a comprehensive breakdown of the betting results and the overall financial performance.

Overall Performance

Total Wagered	Total Return	Net Profit	ROI
$2,250	$3,217.55	$967.55	42.99%

Pool 1: Point Spreads & Totals

The investment in this pool resulted in a small profit, with the Jaguars easily covering the spread. The high-scoring nature of the game, however, meant the "Under" bet was unsuccessful.

Bet	Recommended Stake	Odds	Result	Status	Profit/Loss
Jaguars +3.5	$286	-120	Jaguars 31 - 28 Chiefs	Win	$238.33
UNDER 45.5	$214	-105	59 Total Points	Loss	-$214.00
Pool Total	$500				$24.33

Pool 2: Player Props

The player props pool ended with a net loss, as three of the five selections did not meet their targets. Travis Etienne Jr. was held in check by the Chiefs' defense, and an injury unfortunately cut short Brenton Strange's night. Travis Kelce and Brian Thomas Jr., however, both surpassed their receiving yardage marks.

Bet	Recommended Stake	Odds	Result	Status	Profit/Loss
Travis Etienne Jr. OVER 65.5 Rushing Yards	$153	-114	49 Rushing Yards	Loss	-$153.00

Pool 3: Moneyline

The boldest bet of the night was also the most profitable. The full $1,000 stake on the Jaguars to win at +160 odds paid off handsomely, forming the backbone of the evening's success.

Bet	Recommended Stake	Odds	Result	Status	Profit/Loss

Pool 4: Parlays

Both parlay bets were unsuccessful. In each case, two of the three legs of the parlay failed to hit, underscoring the high-risk, high-reward nature of these wagers.

Bet	Recommended Stake	Odds	Legs	Status	Profit/Loss
Defensive Domination Parlay	$90	+470	Jaguars +3.5 (Win), UNDER 45.5 (Loss), T. Etienne OVER 65.5 Rush Yards (Loss)	Loss	-$90.00
